PRESS STATEMENT ON RELEASE OF 2025 PRIMARY SCHOOL EXAMINATION RESULTS

Members of the press, Ladies and Gentlemen.

I am delighted to inform the nation that the South Sudan National Examinations Council has finished processing of the 2025 Primary School Examination results. The Examinations were written between 24th and 28th November 2025.

A total of 85,511 candidates (45,938 males and 39,573 females) registered for the examinations. However, only 84,506 candidates (45,427 males and 39,079) sat for the examinations. The rest were reported absence. The examinations were administered all over the country in 1,925 schools, which were clustered into 551 examination centers.

In terms of performance, out of the 84,506 candidates that attempted the exams, 81,431 candidates (44,161 males, 37,270 females) passed the exams with an overall pass rate of 96.4 % which represents a weighted score of 71.1 percentage performance index.

Subject performance analysis also indicates that Christian Religious Education and Science are the most improved subjects while English and Mathematics are the worse performed subjects.

Ladies and gentlemen, I hereby announce the top performers in the 2025 Certificate of Primary Education Examinations:
