Section (B)
COMPREHENSION (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully before answering the questions.

Peter woke up very early in the morning. He thought it was five o'clock. He put on his other clothes. The uniform would make him be recognized easily. He was now ready to get lost away from home. He was tired of his step mother's abuses and daily beatings. Quietly, he opened the door and headed for the road. He touched his pocket to feel if his money was there. This was five thousand pounds which he had got from his uncle. When he reached the road side, he sat down to wait for the six o'clock bus. During this time, he was thinking about how life would be. He was going to start a new life. He didn't know what exactly he was going to do and where he was going. Soon the bus arrived and he boarded. At about ten past six, the bus started roaring with a cloud of dust following it meanwhile; Peter looked through the window and thought that the scenery along the road was beautiful. The trees, houses and cattle seemed to run past the bus. At exactly two in the afternoon the bus stopped. it then made a turn and faced where it had come from. all the passengers got off and went into different directions. Others took the next buses and taxis. New passengers then boarded the bus that Peter had travelled by. Peter did not know what to do. He had made a wrong decision. Home was still better for him.
